

Dr. MaryAnn Demchak, Jill Grattan

1:15 pm – 2:45 pm, Arizona Ballroom, Room VII, VIII

Overview of Self-Determination for Infants, Toddlers, and Preschoolers with Combined Vision and Hearing Loss

Presentation objective: This session will focus on a discussion of self-determination: importance, what it is, opportunities for teaching, and strategies relevant for home and/or school settings.

Presentation description: This session will focus on a discussion of self-determination: importance, what it is, opportunities for teaching, and strategies relevant for home and/or school settings.

Dr. MaryAnn Demchak, Jill Grattan

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm, Arizona Ballroom, Room VII, VIII

Choice-Making as a Means to Self-Determination for Infants, Toddlers, and Preschoolers with Combined Vision & Hearing Loss

Presentation objective: Increase understanding of opportunities for teaching choice-making and strategies for teaching choice-making

Presentation description: This session will focus on how choice-making is linked to self-determination as well as identifying opportunities for choice-making and strategies for effectively teaching choice-making.